CLASSIFICATION SPECIFICATION/ESSENTIAL JOB ELEMENTS FORM

(This form must be returned with your application or you will not be included in this process)

I have reviewed the Job Classification Specification for the position of:

Classification Title

Please answer the following question(s):

- A. After reviewing the job classification that includes essential job tasks, can you perform the essential job duties and responsibilities of the position?

Check one: Yes No (If Yes, do not answer "B" and "C" below)

Please note: Under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), a qualified individual with a disability who satisfies the requisite skills, experience, education and other job related requirements – is defined as an individual who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of the employment position that such individual holds or desires.

- B. Are reasonable accommodations needed during the testing process and are you willing to discuss the same?

Check one: Yes No

(Please note: The person must successfully complete the job testing process with reasonable accommodations if necessary in an open and competitive manner with all other applicants for the position. ADA does not apply reasonable accommodations for employment tests that require the use of sensory, manual or speaking skills where the tests are intended to measure those skills.)

- C. If you are a person with a disability, would you be willing to discuss what reasonable accommodations may be needed at the appropriate time during the hiring process?

Check one: Yes No

(Please note: We cannot proceed with your application unless you are willing to discuss what reasonable accommodations would be needed.)
